Three Firsts: Women Pioneers in American Surgery This 55-minute video documents the lives and careers of three women pioneers in American surgery. These notable female surgeons are Alma Dea Morani, MD, the first female plastic/reconstructive surgeon; Nina Starr Braunwald, MD, the first female cardiac surgeon and a deputy NIH director; and Olga Jonasson, MD, who was a leader in the American College of Surgeons, and was the first female chair of an academic department of surgery.	$ 30.00
Handbook on Sexual Harassment This binder is a compilation of reference information on sexual and gender harassment issues.	$10.00
Pocket Mentor: A Manual For Surgical Interns & Residents A handbook for surgical interns to ease the transition from student to resident to surgeon. Based upon the experiences of a number of women surgeons and written by the members of AWS, this resource is intended to make your passage a bit easier than it was for them. The Pocket Mentor is also available on-line.	complimentary
NIH Video "Women Are Surgeons" Produced by NIH, this 24-minute video is targeted at young girls to encourage them to enter the field of surgery. It is a great resource for school libraries, career center libraries, or for use in career day presentations.	complimentary
